Pay Per View – Buy Now links in Ovid

Depending on your configuration, Ovid may show “Buy Now” and “Pay Per View” links with your search results. These links allow individuals to purchase the article directly from Ovid. A credit card (American Express, Discover, Master Card or VISA) is required.

This document explains how to use the Pay Per View feature. If you have any questions or if you want to enable (or disable) this feature please write to support@ovid.com

1. When you search in Ovid, some records may show a PDF icon with the text Pay Per View. Next to the records you will also see a Buy Now link. Both links represent the same option allowing individual end-users to purchase the article with their credit card.

2. After clicking on either of the links users will be presented with a login screen. If you are a first time user to Ovid Pay Per View, you can register for a Ovid Pay Per View account. Please click on Create it now to activate your account. This way you only have to enter your personal information one time, which is easier if you plan to purchase more “Pay Per View” articles in the future.

If you click on use guest checkout the system will ask you for your email address and it will also allow you to purchase the article. In this case you do not have to register, but your personal details will not be kept for the next article you may want to purchase.

Registration for Ovid Pay Per View is free and at this point does not imply any obligation to buy the article.
3. After successful registration for a Pay Per View account or the one-time guest registration of your email address, the Article Information screen displays, including the price of the article.

The following article is ready for checkout. Please review and click “Proceed to Checkout” to continue. Upon purchase you will have access to purchased articles for a 24 hour period. The article will be available in PDF, HTML or both.
